

massage therapy informed consent

I, (Client's Name) Cayla Richardson have chosen to consult with and hereby give consent for massage therapy to be provided by (Therapist's name) Tanya McDonald who I understand is a member of the Association of Massage Therapists Ltd (AMT).

I am aware that the therapist intends to perform lymphatic massage and consent to this technique being used as part of my treatment plan. The therapist has thoroughly explained the risks and benefits associated with this technique.

I have provided a detailed medical history. I do not expect the therapist to have foreseen any previous or pre-existing condition that I have not mentioned.

I understand that massage may provide benefits for certain conditions but results are not guaranteed. These benefits may include relief of muscular tension, relaxation, reduction in the symptoms of stress-related conditions and provision of general wellbeing.

I also understand that massage therapy may produce side effects such as muscle soreness, mild bruising, increased awareness of areas of pain and light-headedness amongst other possible temporary outcomes.

I am aware that the therapist does not diagnose illnesses, prescribe medications nor physically manipulate the spine or its immediate articulations.

The therapist understands that I have the right to question procedures used and to receive an explanation of any procedures that the therapist performs.

I will tell the therapist about any discomfort I may experience during the therapy session and understand that the therapy will be adjusted accordingly.
