By signing this document, you verify that the protocol you are signing is correct.

Blood tests are included in the price.

Charges will be subject to exchange rate fluctuations if quoted in USD or CAD.

This protocol may be modified at the doctors' discretion to ensure successful treatment in every situation, following the interpretation of studies.

20% of the total amount must be paid upon acceptance of this protocol to secure your appointment in the clinic's calendar.

By paying with any credit card not issued in Mexico, your bank may convert the total amount paid in Mexican pesos to your own currency, at their established exchange rate. This conversion is subject to constant fluctuations between the Mexican peso and your currency. The clinic does not have any control over these exchange rate conversions.

This protocol is subject to expiration 90 days after being offered. Beyond this period, we cannot guarantee the same price that was previously offered if it is not accepted before its expiration time.

Cancellation:* Must be made with at least two weeks' notice. At that point, a 100% reimbursement can be issued, though bank fees may apply.
