MRI BRAIN

Indication:
 Punctate T2/FLAIR hyperintense white matter foci on MRI brain 2023 for comparison. Chronic unexplained headaches.

Findings:
 Comparison is made to the prior MRI head 23/1/2023.

No significant change in several punctate foci of subcortical and deep periventricular white matter T2/FLAIR hyperintensities, compatible with mild chronic small vessel ischaemic changes. No lesions are seen in the callososeptal interface or posterior cranial fossa. No intracranial mass. No hydrocephalus. No restricted diffusion. No abnormal susceptibility artefact.

The principal intracranial T2 flow voids are maintained.

The pituitary and brain stem appear normal.

Comment:
 No significant change in mild chronic small vessel ischaemic changes since MRI brain 23/1/2023.
