INSTRUCTIONS

1. Check

Please ensure the print quality of the label is clear and legible. If you do not have access to a printer please refer to point 4. Print at Post. If you are sending multiple parcels, a separate label with a unique barcode is required for each parcel.

2. Sign & Secure

Sign the Aviation Security and Dangerous Goods Declaration and securely attach the label to the top face of the parcel, ensuring tape does not cover any part of the barcode. Please pack your item securely.

3. Post

Post your parcel at any Post Office and you will be issued with a lodgement receipt. Alternatively, post your parcel in a red street posting box or in-store drop box (if size permits and your retailer has not specified otherwise).

4. Print at Post

You may print your label at most Post Offices - see auspost.com.au/print-locations to find out which Post Offices are included. You should:

- Either bring an electronic copy of this label on your phone or tablet and present this to the Australia Post counter staff who will scan the barcode print the return label and attach it to your parcel
- Or quote the following number to the Australia Post counter staff to enable them to print and attach a return label
