Dream

Met lady - choreographer of a show. a hair dresser.
talking about how I wanted my hair cut.
fashion mask

1. Youth -
2. Becoming an adult - learning to stand on your own.
- 3.

1. Storm -

showing her my old head shot.
Feel ugly etc.
av. shower.
Life feeling groundhogg.

F: putting me back in my place.

Had a time where I felt I was incredible.

Now learning I'm one of many misdeeds.

Hard to disconnect from art & drag. Was so much part of my life (didn't do it) as I don't know my gender so didn't want to perform it.

I feel like a child running around wanting to do something but how do you know what to do?
My illusion has shattered but nothing to keep me going
Job of artist is to create the illusion.

A version of me has died; the illusion of me has gone but can't be forgotten.

I got scared of how colors express.

Last chapter - be loud; express.

Now - you can't just express

Nest - mine + Swanage story. I need to work out myself 1st.

Feel my stories were part of this illusion

~~I feel I've just woken up + looked back like a child + started crying + can't stop.~~

~~Illusion was of certainty + now I've got none.~~

Searching for meaning. We create meaning.

Dread - won't have more meaning.

Certain I could do anything

I was a superhero (at kids' parties)

Obsessed in theatre since 13 - off stage, on stage transitioning through that sense

It's going OK. but think state's changing

I feel I'm folding back in but a protective fold back is not a hiding.

? Age

12 - 13

Shock: Child didn't expect to be woken
It was private but he came up. (the grooming)

F: fear they'll never stop crying

⊕ The illusion - mourning the loss of the illusion.

I still feel like a child

Haven't lost my childhood; but have lost the illusion of being the child.

When my illusion shattered, I thought everyone else did too.
